Jan. 6, 2015	Maybe the People, the Prosecution, should change strategies also. I say we hang the little sob first and THEN give him a fair trial. Jan. 6, 2015	Well, we all know what Judge Roy Bean said: "First we'll give him a fair trial. THEN WE'LL HANG HIM." Or, in this case, whatever the current method of capital punishment is. Madame Guillotine, anybody?	Altosackbuteer, Comment to Dzhokhar Tsarnaev Defense Reverses Strategy , Boston Herald (Jan. 6, 2015), http://www.bostonherald.com/comments/1064709820#disqus_thread
Jan. 6, 2015	I'm sure everyone in the media loves this case. and the Lawyers are loving it too! I just hope it is quicker than Bulger's case and that they do the right thing and put an end to this disgusting terrorist traitor. I only wish they could get his mother and the rest of the family in the same position. This family should be used as an example of why the Government should have more due diligence. they are the ones who allowed this family in and showered them with gifts and all the while they hated America. it's people and everything it stands for. Jan. 6, 2015	I'm against animal cruelty, but in this case I'll make an exception. Throw this trash in a shallow grave with his animal brother... Jan. 5, 2015	I find it terribly aggravating that this little prick is getting the full benefits of our legal system along with the high-priced, BS'ing lawyers - all at the taxpayer's expense. And this trial will go on until we're absolutely sick of hearing about it, it'll make Whitey Bulger's trial seem like a passing summer breeze. But, if there is ever any truth to the statement that "revenge is sweet", I hope it plays out with this little ahole. I want to see him executed and not 10 years from now either - after the fair trial of course. Jan. 5, 2015	Waterboard him for giggles until Mom, the dirty gypsy grafter, comes over. Then shoot them both!	Stockli2, Comment to Dzhokhar Tsarnaev Proceedings Shine Spotlight on Boston , Boston Herald (Jan. 5, 2015), http://www.bostonherald.com/comments/1064708701#disqus_thread
Jan. 5, 2015	Him and all his scumbag thieving welfare collecting family. How much would the taxpayer save if that had happened? How much would the retail outlets save if every woman in this family wasn't a shoplifter? And this before Joker and his thank-god-he's-dead brother decided to blow up the Marathon. The four victims, (including Sean Collier) would still be alive. I'd figure out a way to shoot the plane down myself if not for all the other innocents on board. Jan. 4, 2015	No cell. Think of the long-term cost of housing and continued appeals. A scaffold built by aspiring carpenters from a local trade school would set a nice example for like-minded terrorists. Right there at the Fed Courthouse. Such a pleasant scenic backdrop. No?	Golden Rudy, Comment to Delay, Venue Change Denied for Dzhokhar Tsarnaev , Boston Herald (Jan. 4, 2015), http://www.bostonherald.com/comments/1064707802#disqus_thread
Jan. 4, 2015	I propose his cell have a six foot round old fashion school clock with minute hand that clicks off the loudest sound each time moves. Remind him each second going bye is eternity of his sentence before his execution. Court this would be inside a cement block room which amplifies sound and his meals should be strictly PIG. Dec. 30, 2014	This lawyer make me laugh (sometimes), like there is even a remote chance that this guy is not guilty of this crime. He even admitted to it himself by writing that note in the boat when he thought he was going to bleed to death. Never mind the video of him with the back pack and then with out it. Then you have the evidence taken from the dorm room of bomb making material. This makes me sick because he should be already have been sentenced to death also his execution should be fast tracked! Dec. 29, 2014	How much preparation do they need? He did it or he didn't. all else is irrelevant. If they can prove he didn't do it (they can't) they should be able to do it fairly quickly. Dec. 26, 2014	I have seen so many criminal trials in my time that it will not shock me to see the defense team attempting to portray the dead and wounded as the 'bad guys'... yeah, he's entitled to a trial (something he would have denied in his Russian/Chechin homeland). So be it, and let it go forth and then the appeals process be as short as McVeigh's. Dec. 19, 2014	Counter protests against the vile faith and its misguided supporters is a must. Looking at the Marathon savagery in isolation is a mistake. Using words like 'tragedy' for the Marathon murders is semantic disrespect to the innocent victims of Tsarnaev and his sort. Western culture is under assault by savages. While Tsarnaev will see federal justice, we must cease trying to rationalize the pathology of Islamic psychopaths. As done outside our borders, we must hunt down and liquidate those that subscribe to the murderous ideology that live comfortably within our borders. The war against tainted Islam is an existential one. Jan. 3, 2015	I realize that we have to give the tousle-haired lad a fair trial, but really, is there any chance at all that he will be found "not guilty"? He is on dozens of surveillance cameras putting down his backpack, looking the other way from everyone else, etc. Carjacking a vehicle, shooting at the police in Watertown, hiding in a boat. What's the defense going to say, mistaken identity? Dysfunctional childhood from growing up in a third world hellhole? I'll bet the defense will say he was "lead astray" by his older brother, and that really, he was a victim. Gimme a break.
